HISTORIC BENNETT VALLEY RANCH

5525 Bennett Valley Road | Santa Rosa, CA

$7,750,000

This Historic Turn of the Century Main Home is strategically sited at the base of Bennett Mountain and the 5000 +/- Annadel State Park. From the banks of French doors and old world wrap around wooden porch you overlook an expansive bucolic Bennett Valley and Jess & Barbara Jackson's, Jackson Park, a magnificent 1100 acre ranch made up of World Class Vineyards, oak, redwood & fir forests.

The imperfect glass, mill work and hardwood floors enhance the feeling of living back in time when life was a lot slower and relaxed. The Kitchen has a high ceiling, sunny window seat and was remodeled simply to preserve the architectural integrity of this fine turn of the century home. The spacious Formal Dining room also has tremendous natural light; this room is surrounded by beautiful wood windows on two sides taking full advantage of the bucolic valley. The Living Room has a traditional wood burning fireplace with an elegant mantle incorporating refined Ionian columns on each side. French doors lead to a splendid wooden porch with pastoral views of Bennett Valley. The Master Suite is understated and comfortable featuring a spacious modern shower with dual shower heads. Family Room is graced with a boxed beam ceiling and plenty of this home has most of its original doors and hardware. The guest bedrooms have there original character. This home includes a private office overlooking the gardens and a detached 3 car garage.
